V. Curriculum Development

A. Courses

2024 Revised WS 2000 to be offered as a blended learning class with the lecture portion online and in-person recitation sections. This included writing and recording all lecture content to be delivered asynchronously, and reformatting recitations around more meaningful small group projects.

2018 Led Development of CCS 4890, which is the Internship course for the School of Cultural and Critical Studies.

2014 Developed a section of the new Freshman Seminar (BGSU 1910) called the Politics of Sex. This course teaches students how to think critically about sex and sexuality, how they are shaped by social and political discourse, and it also helps them acculturate to BGSU. This section also included an optional field trip to the Kinsey Institute in Bloomington, Indiana. Taught Fall 2014.

2014 Took lead on the application to have WS 2000 count as a BG Perspectives, Arts and Humanities course. Course was submitted for approval in Spring 2014.

2013 Adapted WS 2000 for large lecture, including adding classroom response system technology to facilitate participation.

2013 Developed an undergraduate course called Love, Sex, and Disability that is a special topics course taught under WS 3510.

2011 Developed Inquiry into Individuals and Society: Women, Culture, and Society (WS 1930Q) for CUE curriculum at BGSU.

2011 Developed graduate special topics course called "Representing Love, Sex, and Disability" (WS 6820). This was developed as an online course.

2011 Led the development of the interdisciplinary Sexuality Studies minor, which is housed in the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program.

2010 Developed Contemporary Global Feminisms (already approved as WS 3130) for online delivery.

2010 Developed special topics course called "Women, Gender, and Health" (WS 3000).

B. Workshops

2012 Developed, with Dr. Anne Mitchell, undergraduate/graduate summer workshop titled "Critical Pedagogy for Feminist & Anti-Racist Leadership." We have taught this course twice, both as two-week, intensive seminars with a service-learning component.

C. Educational Materials
